In July 2015, the European Parliament called on the Commission to protect the EU’s right to regulate, to ensure equal treatment of foreign and domestic investors, to address investors’ responsibilities, and to replace ISDS with a new system subject to democratic principles and scrutiny, in which investment disputes would be resolved by professional judges, respecting EU and Member State jurisdiction.

The Final CETA Text Ignores almost all of the European Parliament's Stipulations. We therefore call on the European Parliament to stop CETA.
